

We Are Missionaries

Words and Music - Gregory L. Goehring

I will go, I will serve my fel-low man, Teach my bro -thers and sis -ters in each land. I will seek out those sear -ching for the truth Pro -claim the gos -pel from each and e -'vry roof. I've pre -pared to serve a mis -sion from my youth. I have searched, I have prayed to know the truth. With the spi -rit to guide me from a -bove, I will bear my wit -ness of my Sa -vior's love. God, the

Fa -ther, His Son and Ho -ly Ghost, Res -to -ra -tion and Pro -phets on the earth, E -ter -nal fam -lies, the Plan of Hap -pi -ness Mes -sag -es that I love to teach the best These are truths I will teach be -cause I know That the spi -rit will con -firm to heart and soul. I will bap -tize with po -wer from on high, New souls rise, old ways pass a -way and die. Each of us serve as mis -sion -a -ries too, Our ex -am -ple, the things we say and do. We must search, we must serve our fel-low man, Find our bro -thers and sis -ters in our land. We will be a light that shines out in the night, Giv -ing strength to those sear -ching for the right. With the spi -rit and gui -dance from a -bove, We will share our wit -ness of our Sa -vior's love.
